Arraignment Scheduled For Man Charged in Fatal East Hollywood Shooting

An 18-year-old man is scheduled to be arraigned today on a murder charge for a fatal shooting in East Hollywood in October, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Eric Carreon Carrillo (1/5/97) is expected to appear today in Department 30 of the Foltz Criminal Justice Center. Carrillo was charged with one count of murder as well as gun and gang allegations in case BA432316.

Deputy District Attorney Hubert Yun of the Hardcore Gang Division said that Carrillo and two other suspected gang members were walking in the area of Melrose and Kenmore avenues about 3 a.m. on Oct. 2 when they were approached by Aniya Parker and a man. During an argument between Parker and the group, Carrillo allegedly hit Parker in the face.

As Parker, 47, tried to walk away, someone from the group followed and shot the victim, the prosecutor said. Parker died at a hospital.

If convicted as charged, Carrillo faces a possible maximum prison sentence of 50 years to life.

The case remains under investigation by the Los Angeles Police Department's Rampart Division.
